

Caritas Cares' Brief Description

Caritas Cares is a health initiative targeted at improving the health of our adult autism community. As a house CIP project, we provide free annual health services for adults with autism at Eden centre, as well as health awareness education for their caregivers. Guided by the needs of this exceptional community, Caritas Cares aims to bring exceptional and personal healthcare to them for early detection and prevention of chronic disease, in order to improve the overall well-being for the community.

In Photo (from left): Committee members Natalie Aw, Melvin Ng, Kevin Chong

Photo taken during a session at Eden Centre in 2017